

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Coppola Completes Geyserville ‘Wine Wonderland’ with the Opening of Winery Park

GEYSERVILLE, Calif. (October 22, 2010) – Francis Ford Coppola Winery debuts its latest family-friendly attractions today with the opening of a winery park and swimming pools.

Now open daily through October 31st and weekends in November, weather permitting, two swimming pools highlight the park that also includes European-style changing cabines, an outdoor Pool Cafe, a performance Pavilion, four bocce courts, and a children’s lending library.

Initially, admission to the pools, which reach a depth of seven feet, is complimentary to all guests and includes the use of a towel. Daily cabine rentals are available for an introductory price of $25 on a first-come, first-served basis. The outdoor Pool Cafe serves a selection of poolside fare such as sandwiches and gelato. The performance Pavilion will host a variety of entertainment including live music and dancing throughout November.

Francis Ford Coppola Winery moved into its newly renovated interior space in July 2010, which includes RUSTIC, Francis’s Favorites, a restaurant with outdoor dining terraces and adjacent cocktail bar, two wine tasting bars, an extensive movie gallery, and a collection of retail and gift items from around the world.
