2014 ZINFANDEL

Director's wines come from diverse vineyards across the expanse of Sonoma County. By blending fruit from a variety of climates, we create wines that show the full range of Sonoma County's unique character and style.

BLEND

81% Zinfandel, 19% Petite Sirah

AROMAS

Fragrant spice notes, heightened by the integration of French and American oak

FLAVORS

Raspberries, Blackberries, Cherries, touch of floral nuances of Cocoa and Nutmeg

DRY CREEK VALLEY AND ALEXANDER VALLEY

- Sonoma Coast marine conditions generate warm days and cool evenings.
- Helps fruit mature slowly and retain natural acidity.
- Gravelly and loamy soils bring out the varietal's spice and pepper notes.

BARREL REGIMEN

15 MONTHS
IN FRENCH OAK & AMERICAN OAK

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

Warm temperatures in September transformed the fruit. By harvest the Zinfandel developed a lush, velvety texture and intense aromatics.

VINTAGE NOTES

Beautifully balanced and framed by a hint of tannin, our 2014 Director's Zinfandel has a long, fragrant finish rich in fruit and sweet spices.
