A lavish bathroom includes a separate shower and clawfoot bathtub. King-sized bed. 470 square feet (43 square meters).

Suite Eight (Gia) - This romantic suite was designed as a gift to Gia Coppola, Francis's first granddaughter. Many years ago, when the Palazzo was still the private home of the Margherita family, owner Giuseppe asked local artisans to paint the ceiling of this suite with a romantic mythological scene (Cupid and Psyche) in order to bestow good fortune and a happy marriage for his beloved daughter. It gives us great pleasure to continue this tradition for our newlywed guests and we believe that spending a honeymoon in the Gia Suite assures good luck for a long and happy marriage! A large walk-in closet and separate dressing room add to the dramatic scale. A balcony offers a view of Bernalda's main street and town square, a perfect spot from which to enjoy the spectacle of unhurried, small-town life. A spacious bathroom includes a clawfoot bathtub and separate shower. King-sized bed. 780 square feet (70 square meters).

Suite Nine (Francis) - Our most spacious suite integrates subtle elements of Tunisian design—a historical influence in Southern Italy. The motif is meant to honor the Maestro's Tunisian-born grandmother, Maria Zasa. This picturesque suite has a furnished shared terrace overlooking the garden and courtyard. A luxurious bathroom includes a clawfoot bathtub and separate shower and a wood-burning fireplace. Walls and high ceilings feature beautifully painted frescoes. King-sized bed. 795 square feet (73 square meters).
