

THE FAMILY COPPOLA REBRANDS HOTELS AS THE FAMILY COPPOLA HIDEAWAYS

Special Hideaway Offer Available for A Limited Time: Book Two or More of the Coppola Family's Favorite Personal Hideaway Units in One Itinerary and Receive 20% Off Entire Stay

NAPA, CA (April 11, 2017) – Francis Ford Coppola announced today the rebranding of his luxury boutique hotel group to The Family Coppola Hideaways with a special limited time offer allowing guests to live like a Coppola.

"While our hotels are so unique and different from one another, the one common thread at each Coppola property has always been how deeply personal each one is to me and my family," said Francis Ford Coppola. "I thought it better to change to a more personal designation, Hideaways."

Couples and families alike who visit the Coppola properties in Belize and Guatemala have always been able to live like a Coppola in the same accommodations that the family calls home when they visit. But now for a limited time, The Family Coppola Hideaways is offering guests an exciting hideaway special across all three of its Central American properties. For a limited time, book two or more of the Coppola family's favorite personal dwellings in one itinerary and receive 20% off the entire stay. The offer extends to the Coppola family's preferred dwellings at each Central American property, including Coral Caye, Sofia's Beach House, and Francis' Family Pavilion at Turtle Inn; Francis Ford Coppola's Villa and the Enchanted Cottage at Blancaneaux Lodge and the Lakeview Suites at La Lancha.
